Datadog Opens Registration for Its 2025 DASH Conference

February 20, 2025 at 4:00 PM EST

New York, New York--(Newsfile Corp. - February 20, 2025) - Datadog, Inc. (NASDAQ: DDOG), the monitoring and security platform for cloud applications, today opened registration for DASH, its eighth annual global conference for CIOs, CISOs, developers, SREs, security and operations professionals to build and scale the next generation of applications, infrastructure, security, GenAI and teams. The conference will take place June 10-11, 2025 at North Javits Center in New York City.

DASH will feature more than fifty sessions, with speakers from Redfin, Thales IFE, Toyota, Volkswagen and more sharing their stories about performance and efficiency, scaling systems, security and compliance, empowering internal teams, technical and organizational transformation, and real-world AI and LLM deployment.

"At DASH, attendees learn directly from product experts and industry peers through hands-on workshops, keynotes and real-world case studies. Whether they're looking to scale systems, enhance performance, strengthen security and compliance, get ahead of AI deployment or build high-performing teams, they'll gain practical insights and best practices to take back to their organizations," said Yanbing Li, Chief Product Officer at Datadog.

Attendees of DASH will find:

- Keynote Presentation: Hear from Datadog customers, executives and product leaders as they share how you can up-level your monitoring, observability and security workflows. Walk away with solutions and ideas that will help transform your organization.
- 50+ Breakout Sessions: Unlock inspiration and best practices from the industry's most innovative DevOps and security organizations and professionals.
- 20+ Hands-on Workshops: Choose from over 20 workshops ranging from Datadog 101 for SREs to advanced topics like monitoring Kubernetes clusters.
- On-site Certification Exams: DASH is the only event where you can get Datadog-certified onsite. Exams are included with your ticket to DASH.
- Networking Opportunities: Meet and network with thousands of DevOps peers and industry changemakers.
- Datadog Partner Expo: Engage with technology and service providers like Google, AWS and more.
